

The Central Committee of the Communist Party of China issued instructions on launching the Movement to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea in areas inhabited by minority nationalities.

03-02-1951

The directive pointed out that the Movement to Resist US Aggression and Aid Korea, to Oppose the US Arms of Japan, and to the Patriotic Convention should be further launched and launched in a timely and appropriate manner in all minority nationality areas, so as to eliminate the imperialist influence among the minority nationalities and strengthen their understanding and feelings of caring for their own nation and the motherland.

The specific slogans, methods and steps of the movement must be adapted to the specific circumstances of each ethnic minority, and cannot simply be adapted to the experience of the Han Chinese.
