

Measures of the Government Affairs Council on Publishing Bulletins and Announcement

Documents by All Organs of the Central People's Government

09-12-1949

The Interim Measures for Important News of the Central People's Government and its affiliated agencies, which stipulates that all announcements and announcements will be released by Xinhua News Agency in a unified manner.

In order to further strengthen the effect and accuracy of news publication, it is hereby designated that all announcements and announcement news belonging to the Central People's Government and its affiliated agencies shall be published by Xinhua News Agency and published by People's Daily.

If there is any discrepancy between the texts published by various newspapers and periodicals, the texts published by Xinhua News Agency and the People's Daily shall prevail.

The methods are as follows: 1. Regarding laws and regulations:

1. After the announcement of important laws and regulations known to the people of the whole country, after being approved by the State Council and published by the Xinhua News Agency, the People's Daily should be published in different pages according to their content and importance; if necessary if it is published on a certain day, it shall be indicated by the Office of the Secretary of the State Council.

2. Minor decrees are published as supplements due to the crowded space of the People's Daily; if there is a deadline specified, it must be published as a journal; if the deadline is not specified, it must be published within one week from the date of receipt of the manuscript out.

3. Laws and decrees that are only related to some people or some regions, but have no generally known significance, may be published in supplements or abstracts by the People's Daily, in addition to the full text of the newspapers in the relevant localities notified by the Xinhua News Agency designated by the State Council.

2. Regarding the reporters: 1. For the important reports designated by the State Council to be published by the People's Daily, the People's Daily shall publish them in different editions or supplements according to the nature and importance of the content. If it has a limited period, it should be published as scheduled. 2. General work summary reports, etc., may be published in the form of news or changed to papers by People's Daily; however, when requested by the publishing agency's work needs, the full text may also be published by People's Daily in a supplement.

3. Regarding the list of appointments:

1. The list of appointments (together with resumes) approved by the Central People's Government Committee meeting shall be published in the People's Daily in a supplementary issue within one week.

2. The list of appointments approved by the Government Affairs Council of the Government Affairs Council is generally not published in the "People's Daily"; if the important ones are endorsed by the Government Council, the "People's Daily" should be published on the news page or supplement according to the date of the endorsement.
