Major Agenda Items:

The current situation inside and outside the whole army

Speeches/Reports:

The meeting held that over the past year, the army's defense work has been coordinated with the fulfillment of various tasks and the central work of various periods, and has played a role in purifying and consolidating the troops. However, there are also serious shortcomings:

First, in the victorious situation, some cadres think that the army's defense work can be weakened or even eliminated in the future.

Second, there is a lack of understanding of covert struggle and insufficient study of policies in the troops, and there is a tendency to be seriously paralyzed by underestimating the enemy and to grasp the right side of "being lenient and boundless" in grasping and implementing policies.

Third, there is a lack of understanding of the reconnaissance work in the troops, the guiding ideology is not clear, and there is an insignificant viewpoint of cancellation.

Fourth, the defense contingent is not strong enough, the number of cadres is small and the quality is weak, and there is a lack of knowledge and methods for the struggle against the enemy. The meeting put forward the tasks and directions of the defense work in the future: Obey the general tasks of the army's work, namely, strengthening army building, strengthening national defense, defending the territorial and sovereign integrity of the state, and peace in East Asia and the world, and under the leadership of the party and political organs, and in coordination with relevant departments, focus on prosecuting and punishing all counter-revolutionary elements from outside or within, safeguard the party's policies and discipline, purify and consolidate the whole army politically and organizationally, and create the necessary political and organizational conditions for building a strong national defense force. The line of work is still "the leadership of the party committee, the responsibility of the chief, the integration of security work with general work, and the integration of special organs with the broad masses."

The main tasks in the future are:

1. Do a good job in examining the recruits, retention, and recruitment of personnel in the troops, and ensure the purity of the organizational composition of the troops.
2. Strengthen the reconnaissance work of the troops and attach importance to the construction of specialized work.
3. Continue to carry out in-depth propaganda and education on the prevention of rape and anti-special forces, overcome the paralyzing ideology of peace and the bias of the right, but pay attention to preventing and correcting the actions of the "left" in a timely manner.
4. strengthen the security work of organs, and establish and improve the secrecy and security system.
5. Strengthen the work of purging the insurrectionary forces.
6. Improve institutions, train cadres, and set up short-term training courses; Cadres at or above the head of the security unit of the training regiments in major strategic regions, and cadres at the level of training and training officers of provincial military districts and armies.

Other Decisions and/or Actions:

The meeting drafted the "Provisional Regulations on Military Law of the Chinese People's Liberation Army" and the "Regulations on the Protection of Secrets for the Whole Army," which were to be approved and promulgated by the Central Military Commission.
